Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Derby, beg Leave, with the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection, to preſent our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Auſpicious Nuptials.

On this Occaſion we cannot but entertain a grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, in ſo early making Choice of a Princeſs, whoſe Merit and amiable Diſpoſition are univerſally acknowledged; and we feel the ſtrongeſt Impreſſions of Joy, when we reflect on this propitious Union, as being ſo perfectly agreeable to your Majeſty's own Royal Inclinations.

As You, Sire, have the peculiar Glory to be the Head of a Conſtitution that diſpenſes Liberty and Happineſs to the Britiſh Iſles, and to reign in the Hearts of a loyal, brave and united People; as you have the Satisfaction to ſee the Fame and Succeſs of your Arms ſpread over the known World, whilſt your Kingdoms at Home, free from the Calamities of War, abound in Riches and Plenty, and all the Liberal Arts of Peace ſmile and flouriſh within their Borders.

So may your Majeſty be happy in the Poſſeſſion of every Bleſſing that can further promote, ſtrengthen and compleat your domeſtic Felicity: May you ſee a numerous Iſſue become, under your Majeſty's directing Eye, as eminent for their Conduct and Accompliſhments, as they will be diſtinguiſhed by the Dignity of their Stations; and may you, Royal Sir, be long continued to your faithful Subjects a bright Example of every private as well as every publick Virtue.

We conſider this important Event, as aſcertaining to your faithful Subjects the Virtue of your own Diſpoſition, and the Motives by which you are directed in every Thing which concerns their Happineſs.

We conſider it as an Event, promiſing to Poſterity the ineſtimable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's happy Government. And we pray, that the ſame good Providence, which has raiſed your Majeſty to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, may tranſmit and perpetuate, in your Poſterity, the Wiſdom, Virtue, and Spirit of that Adminiſtration, which unites the Hearts of your faithful People in the warmeſt Feelings of Gratitude and Joy.

To the Queen,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon.

Madam,

WE beg Leave to expreſs, in your Royal Preſence, how much we felicitate your Majeſty's Alliance and Coronation with the greateſt and beſt of Sovereigns.

His Majeſty's wiſe Choice of a Royal Conſort, adorned with every Virtue, with every Attainment, good, and amiable, plainly teſtifies his great Care, not only to preſerve to us, but to tranſmit unfaded to Poſterity, the Lawrels and Triumphs of His Reign.

We wiſh, with the honeſt Ardour and Sincerity of Old Britons, that your Majeſty may ever be a Stranger to the Anxieties that often encircle a Crown, and that you may be the happy Mother of a Race of Princes, formed from Parental Examples, to be the Guardians of our Liberties, and the Fathers of their Country.

Magdebourg, Jan. 9. General Platen was expected at Leipzig as this Day, with the Corps under his Command.

Magdebourg, Jan. 12. Prince Henry came to Leipzig on the 8th Inſtant; and after ſettling with General Platen the Quarters aſſigned to the Corps, which that General led into Saxony, the Prince returned, on the 11th, to Hoff, where the Head Quarter is eſtabliſhed.

M. Vereſlt, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, arrived here laſt Night from Berlin, in his Way to Holland.

Cologne, Jan. 11. The three Military Hoſpitals, fixed here laſt Summer, ſtill ſubſiſt; and though we have at preſent very few ſick, yet we have a great Number of Phyſicians and Surgeons, who have been this Month, for the firſt Time, paid in Paper Money called Obligations current as Money. The Money formerly ſent to the Treaſurers of the French Army was Louis d'Ors and Crowns; but they now ſend only twenty-five, twelve and a half, eight, and four Sols Pieces.

Coleyne, Jan. 15. All the Foreign Troops in the French Service have received Orders to compleat their Regiments by the firſt of April; but the Scarcity of Men, and the Triſle they offer for engaging Soldiers, make the Recruiting in theſe Countries very ſlow and unſucceſsful.

Liege, Jan. 11. On the Arrival of a Courier from Stockem, with the News that they had withdrawn the Bridge to the Right of the Maeſe, on hearing the Corps of M. Donceel was advanced to Wert, our Commandant immediately ordered twelve Men per Company of Roial Rouſſillon to march from Houſſel; the Regiment of Roial Contabres from Roſemond, and detached an hundred Militia from hence, to aſſiſt in driving out M. Donceel; but, on Examination, it proved a falſe Alarm, and none but the Militia marched on this Expedition.

Bonn, Jan. 11. His Electoral Highneſs has juſt now publiſhed an Order in regard to the bad Money that appears in theſe Countries; by which that of Wirtemberg, Anſpach, Naſſau Weilbourg, Oetting, Bavaria, Weid, Deux Ponts, Saltzbourg, and Nuremberg, are reduced to one Half of their former Value. The Town of Cologne has alſo reduced the Money of the King of Pruſſia.

Hamburgh, Jan. 12. By Advices from Saxony we learn, that his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry of Pruſſia has changed his former Poſition, and is now at Hoff near Oſchatz.

We are informed, that upon the Prince of Wurtemberg's having entered the Duchy of Mecklenbourg Schwerin, the Duke is returned to Lubeck, and has ordered his Mint to be tranſported to Eutin in Ducal Holſtein. The Prince of Wurtenberg's Head Quarters were to be, as to Day, at Roſtock, and thoſe of Colonel Belling are already at Goſtrow.

Ruremond, Jan. 16. The Regiment of Roial Cantabres, that marched hence laſt Week, as well as the Cavalry from Munſter Bilſen, and the Militia from Liege, have received Orders to return to their reſpective Quarters, as the Report ſpread of a Body of Hanoverians appearing in the Campine, proves falſe.
